Dear Wenxin Liu,

On behalf of the organizing committee for our Plant Breeding Academy Special Module - China, we invite you to register for our ten-day academic workshop at UC Davis from April 9-23, 2018. The workshop will include at least ten days of instruction followed by study visits to university campuses in the region.

This program of the Seed Biotechnology Center is in collaboration with China Agricultural University. The Academy goal is to advance participants' skills and abilities by covering the most advanced concepts in genetics and breeding and enable them to become more valuable contributors to their plant breeding programs.

Also included is an invoice along with bank wiring information for you to use to pay the tuition. Please note that registration to the workshop will only be valid once the funds are received. If you have additional questions, please contact me.

Sincerely,

Susan C. DiTomaso
